

The Indiana Center for the Book is a program of the Indiana State Library and an affiliate of the Center for the Book in the Library of Congress.

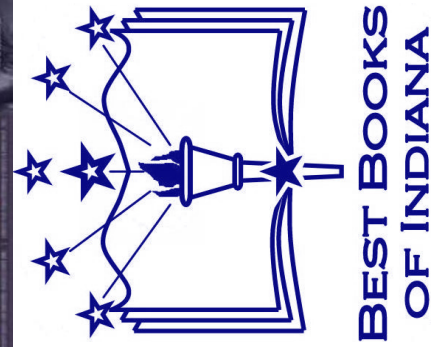

The Indiana Center for the Book promotes interest in reading, writing, literacy, libraries, and Indiana's literary heritage by sponsoring events and serving as an information resource at the state and local level.

The Center for the Book supports both the professional endeavors and the popular pursuits of Indiana's residents toward reading and writing.

2008 Call for Entries

Best Books of Indiana Awards

Eligibility:

 Any individual, organization, or company may enter in any appropriate category.

 Books considered for this award must have an Indiana theme, or the author must live or have lived in Indiana.

 Books should have an ISBN.

 Books must have been originally published between January 1 and December 31, 2007.

 Entries are forwarded to judges upon receipt; please enter as soon as possible.

Judges:

A panel of judges will consider all entries and will grant awards at their discretion. Entries are judged on the quality of writing, with organization and interpretation also considered.

Deadlines:

 Entries must be postmarked or delivered in person by March 31, 2008.

 Finalists will be notified by June 13, 2008.

 Winners will be announced at an awards ceremony in July 2008.

Additional Information:

 No entry fee is required.

 Entrants are responsible for all shipping costs - materials sent C.O.D. will be refused.

 The judges have the right to change the category of an entry.

 If fewer than five entries have been submitted in a given category, an award may not be given in that category.

2008 Entry Form

One completed entry form must be provided to the awards committee for each title entered. Each entry form must be accompanied by five (5) non-returnable copies of the book. Photocopies of this form are acceptable. Form is also available in electronic format at www.library.IN.gov.

Please send entry forms and books to: Indiana Center for the Book, 140 North Senate Avenue, Indianapolis, IN 46204

For questions or comments, please e-mail icb@library.IN.gov or call (317) 234-5067.
